

Media Coverage

Publication	Date	Edition	Link	Headline
Nimo News	26 Aug 2020	Online	https://www.nimonews.live/salary-cuts-layoffs-survey-shows-coronavirus-lockdown-severely-impacted-work-life-balance-of-people/	Salary Cuts & Layoffs! Survey Shows Coronavirus Lockdown Severely Impacted Work-Life Balance Of People

New Delhi: As India continues to reel below the Coronavirus pandemic, a brand new survey reveals that the lockdown imposed to include the virus has drastically affected work-life stability of a number of individuals owing to wage cuts and layoff. The survey performed by on-line by human useful resource options supplier Genius Consultants throughout April-June, acknowledged that just about 50 per cent of respondents consider that coronavirus-related lockdown has affected their work-life stability. ALSO READ | JEE Exams 2020: NTA Releases Fresh Guidelines For Students; Here's All You Need To Know As many as 48.90 per cent of individuals surveyed consider that the lockdown has affected their stability between private {and professional} lives.

The survey discovered that 28.64 per cent individuals felt that the discount in manpower has led to a rise in work stress thus impacting the general work life stability. About 32.9 per cent workers interviewed have opined that they aren't happy with the work within the lockdown, with 20.33 per cent stating that work life stability wants enchancement.

The survey of greater than 1,500 individuals working in sectors, together with banking and finance, building and engineering.

The survey additionally acknowledged that 48.51 per cent individuals felt that the present do business from home schedule doesn't permit them to spend satisfactory time with family and friends.

Meanwhile, as for the present job market, the survey revealed that the e-commerce sector will witness an employability growth within the subsequent two quarters adopted by IT and Service Sector, FMCG, Retail and BFSI.

ALSO READ | Corona Concerns: Hong Kong Man Reinfected With Different Strain Of Virus A Second Time, Say Scientists

However, the expansion within the job market will rely upon the financial situation of the nation and the primary demand will likely be restricted to sure sectors, it added.

About 42.60 per cent of respondents stated one of many main difficulties they've been dealing with whereas trying to find a job on this state of affairs is compromising on the present pay scale. The survey discovered that 39.72 per cent felt that lack of alternatives was one other problem whereas 17.68 per cent felt relocation was a difficulty.

Meanwhile with 60,975 contemporary Coronavirus infections in 24 hours, India's tally mounted to 31,67,323 on Tuesday, whereas the toll climbed to 58,390 with 848 extra fatalities.

Recoveries have crossed the 24-lakh mark and surged to 24,04,585 with 66,550 extra individuals recuperating prior to now 24 hours, taking the restoration fee to 75.91 per cent.