National, 22nd June 2021: The Indian Government's decision to consolidate 29 central labour laws into 4 labour codes, is a move that is going to bring about monumental structural changes and reforms in employment policies that have existed for quite a while. In the light of the anticipated implementation of the new codes, Genius Consultant Ltd, a leading recruitment firm, has conducted a survey to gauge the reaction of India Inc and their sentiments following the awaited implementation.

According to the survey, over 90% people welcomed the new implementations and believed that these reforms were long overdue and would bring about policy changes that would be beneficial in hindsight for both employees and establishments. When asked their opinion on the implication it will have on labourers 'Right to Strike', over 60% people believed that the new provision would be beneficial for establishments that have now prohibited strikes and industrial lock-out without prior notice. However, 40% respondents differed to agree on the same.
