National, February 2022: As the cases of omicron continue to decline across the country, the imperative question remains would hiring trends witness any drastic changes. Genius Consultants Ltd, one of India's leading Human Resource solutions organization, conducted a survey to further analyze the India Inc's opinion on the same.

According to the survey, 73% respondents strongly believe that the new wave wouldn't have an adverse impact on the hiring trends across sectors while the other 27% are not sure if the hiring trends may see a dip or a rise in the near future. It is important to note that hiring trends have progressively been stable after falling drastically as the aftermath of the second wave.
